DELAWARE!

THE Town of Delaware is situated in Kansas territory, on the south side of the Missouri river, three miles above the line of the Delaware reserve, and ten miles below Leavenworth city. This town was laid off and located in February last, on a treet of land densely timbered, easy of access from the surrounding country and situated favorably for health: already there are a number of bouses going upIt has the following resources as a good and prominent point:

The Missouri river at this point is compressed within a narrow space, the channel is remarkably deep on the Delaware side, and washes for a mile above and below, the Kausar shore, thus affording at all times a safe and secure landing for steamers.

Secondly—Timber in Abundance
The tract of land on which the town is laid out, is covered with valuable timber, for building purposes, besides this, there is on the opposite side of the river a large bottom, heavily timbered with oak, ash and walnut.

Thirdly—Its Position.

This town has on the Kansas side of the river supporting it, a large district of the very best lands in the Territory, while on the opposite side of the river there is a large and fertile bottom, teeming with population. This bottom is of itself sufficient to sustain a town of large the most accessible point from which the Delaware nation of Indians can pro-cure their supplies. Delaware is the nearest and most accessible point at which the country on the Kansas civer can do their receiving and forwarding business. There are a great num-ber of towns on the Kansas that will find it to their interest to make this place their shipping point, among them we would name Osawkee, Calhoun and others. As there is a good ferry at this point, emigrants traveling to Kansas Territory on the great State road from St. Joseph to St. Louis, will find that this is the proper point at which to enter the territory, as by this means they avoid a great deal of unne

Health. This location is high and commanding, having no stagnant water near to generate disease-from its streets, there is presented to the eye a spendid view of the Missouri river for miles above and below the town, the country in the vicinity presenting a view at once pleasing and romantic Every inducement will be given to mechanics to make Delaware the place of their choice. We ask each person to examine the place. The merchant will find on an examination, that Delaware is obliged to command a trade not second to any town in the Territory; from such persons we ask an examination. In a word, word we ask for Delaware an examination by the public.
